

Usage & Rating

Gotransverse enables flexible, dynamic pricing. With smart product catalogs and account dependencies, easily execute on your pricing strategy that is central to your competitive advantage. Our advanced rating engine automates your pricing rules, ensuring accuracy and traceability.

Turn your pricing into a competitive advantage

The way in which you package and price your products has profound implications on buying behavior. Finding that perfect balance between business objectives and ever-changing buying behavior requires a high level of agility from your product team. Gotransverse provides the capabilities you need to:

- Launch or modify products and services within minutes
- Manage pricing and terms for limitless one-time, subscription and usage pricing charges
- Handle free trial periods, one-time fees, promotions, etc.
- Create pricing tiers and/or tapers
- Rate multidimensional variables to optimize revenue
- Segment your markets and job roles through specialized access and price lists
- Set pricing in multiple currencies

Lookup	Lookup Name	Status	Description
95	Country_City_Names	ACTIVE	Used in
93	Accessory_Description	ACTIVE	Rental
92	Operation Limits	DRAFT	Used fo
