

Revenue Management

With fully automated daily revenue recognition capabilities, Gotransverse greatly expedites the revenue recognition process. Unique to the platform is its native subledger that easily applies complex revenue recognition policies specific to your company. Implement your revenue policies, and Gotransverse handles the rest.

The screenshot shows the 'AR Ledger' configuration page in the Gotransverse Revenue Management system. The page has a blue header with the 'gotransverse' logo and 'Revenue Management' text. A left sidebar contains navigation icons for 'AR Ledger', 'Charge Info Records', 'Revenue Schedule', and 'Setup'. The main content area is titled 'AR Ledger' and features a table with the following data:

AR Ledger	AR Ledger Name	Status	Time Zone
2	TrackFreight GL 2	ACTIVE	America/Chicago
1	TrackFreight GL 1	CANCELED	America/Chicago

Below the table, there is a pagination control showing '1-2 of 2 items' and '10 per page'.

Revenue technology built for scale

Gotransverse Revenue Management provides a configurable, rules-based, accounts receivable subledger, designed for complex upstream activity and split general ledger coding. You can post and recognize revenue in the general ledger on limitless monetization models and get meaningful, accurate information for high volumes of transactions with a smart aggregation of general ledger transactions.

- Handles complex upstream activity
- Aggregated or detailed journal entries sent to your general ledger
- Compliant with revenue recognition standards like ASC 606

Key Features

- ✓ General Ledger
- ✓ Revenue Recognition

General Ledger

Native to Gotransverse, the general ledger capability automatically creates entries from dynamic charging and billing scenarios. Journal entries are based on specific accounts receivable events providing better forecasting, cleaner audit trails and faster times to close the books, especially for consumption-based businesses.

- General Ledger Accounts
- Account Categories
- Chart of Accounts
- Posting Rules
- Posting Rule Sets
- Accounting Calendar

Revenue Recognition

With Gotransverse, you can recognize earned revenue on a daily basis, aggregated to any time period you want. You define the rules and mapping requirements between the customer charges and your general ledger accounts. Any data point, any value, every day: the rules you create are driven by your business requirements—not by opinionated software.

- Configurable Policies
- ASC 606 Compliance
- Easily Auditable
